Re: Funmilayo Adeyemi v. Babatunde Adeyemi

Matter No.: SFLA-2026-0147

Subject: Case Conference Confirmation

Dear Mr. Thompson:

We act for Funmilayo Adeyemi in the above-captioned matter.

We write to confirm the details of the case conference scheduled for April 28, 2026, before the Ontario Superior Court of Justice, Family Division.

The conference will address the outstanding issues arising from the parties contested divorce, including:

- the parenting arrangements for the parties' minor children, Adaeze Adeyemi, aged 11, and Emeka Adeyemi, aged 8;
- Ms. Adeyemi's proposal for primary physical custody of the children with structured access for Mr. Adeyemi; and
- the parties' dispute concerning the jointly owned matrimonial home, currently valued at approximately CAD $780,000, including Mr. Adeyemi's position seeking a 50/50 division of the matrimonial property.

Both parties are currently residing in the matrimonial home pending the outcome of the custody proceedings.

The divorce petition has been filed, and the 30-day response period is currently running. The parties should ensure that any financial disclosure, parenting documents, case conference materials, and other documents required by the Court are exchanged and filed within the applicable deadlines before the conference.

The time and attendance location/method for the April 28, 2026, conference have not been provided in the matter information. Please confirm these details, together with any specific procedural requirements or documents that remain outstanding before the conference.

Please do not hesitate to contact our office should you have any questions regarding the above.

Yours truly,

Jalin Sue, Esq.
